

“Volunteers don’t get paid, not because they’re worthless, but because they’re priceless.”

Sherry Anderson

When I ask Ladies of the Household to volunteer to assist with a function our temple will be hosting, about 50% of the time the response is: “I’m a nobody; Why ask me?”

That is so not true. We are Daughters of the Nile, who have hearts filled with love for children and who desire to make a difference in children’s lives.

A thank you letter received from a child who received care from the volunteered time of our members wrote: “Dear Daughters of the Nile, I Thank the kind ladies for caring to make my life less painful, also for caring enough to make sure my parents were able to stay near without a huge medical bill.”

The thank you was not addressed “Dear No one” I thank “no one” for caring to make my life... In addition, the child did not I thank “no one” for helping her parents feel at ease with the medical expenses. She thanked the members of Daughters of the Nile!

We have devoted 100 years of caring and are still going. Let us continue to achieve the hopes and dreams of Daughters of the Nile by meeting the needs of our Shrine Children.

How? Volunteer! Every member of Daughters of the Nile has something to offer, whether it is making phone calls, recruiting help with a fundraiser, setting up the Temple, assisting with memory work, or wrapping silverware at a “Pancake Breakfast”. Together we, Daughters of the Nile are making the hopes and dreams come true that “Nobody” cares is not.

Volunteer to reach out and call members you have not seen in a while; she, too, may have the “I’m a Nobody” feeling. A call requesting her assistance may be just what she needs to get her involved.

Be prepared to volunteer information about Daughters of the Nile. Carry a pocket Proposal for Membership and volunteer the information to a woman, who shares our love for children.

When nobody cares, Daughters of the Nile does.
